

Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 28 · 11 October 2026

PUBLISHED BY THE EASTBOURNE ORDINARIATE MISSION FOR ALL THE COMMUNITIES AT CHRIST THE KING AND ST JOACHIM'S

This week marks the celebration of the Ordinariate Festival. It has taken a great deal of organising and hard work by a number of our wonderful people.

A big thank you to those who have helped in many ways and those who are helping baking, hosting and participating in the Festival itself.

As you will see the Festival has changed the pattern of our normal activities as we host over a hundred visiting people — hospitality is a great gift of the Holy Spirit and we are showing it in abundance! Please bear with us for this week and join in where you can in contemplating Beauty, Truth and Goodness.

The Ordinariate isn't a cause of division but a movement to strengthen and establish the life of the Catholic Church in this country. While many other ecclesial communities are struggling to survive, and to remain faithful to the gospel, the Ordinariate, while small, is a prophetic sign of the longed-for healing of the devastating breach in the Church at the Reformation.

We do not rejoice in the struggles of our separated brethren but seek to be what the late St John Paul II called a sign of joy in 'Crossing the Threshold of Faith.' This is a wonderful opportunity for us all and I encourage you to come see and taste the goodness of the Lord expressed in the Festival.

Bishop-Elect Stephen's Episcopal Ordination is on Monday 19 October, at noon in Arundel Cathedral. We continue to pray for him as he prepares to lead the diocese.

Bishop Stephen (as he will be then) will celebrate a Mass of Welcome at Worth Abbey on Saturday 24 October. Attendance at this Mass is by invitation due to space limitations.

Children's Liturgy started at the 11:30 Mass as CTK at the end of last month. Dates for the rest of the year are: Sunday 25 October; Sunday 29 November; Sunday 27 December. Please complete a short form at the back of the church if you wish your child to take part. We are hoping to increase this to every other week in January, but to do that we need more volunteers. Please speak to Fr Neil if you are able to help.

The new Deanery Magazine is available at the back of the church, containing details of our community of communities, faith in action, formation, prayer and more. The Deanery Newsletter for Youth and Schools is still available.
